Buying a gift for a fellow runner can be tricky—just because you love a certain shoe, watch, or pair of wireless headphones doesn't mean they'll be the right fit for someone else. But there's one place you can shop for gifts sure to please any type of runner: Etsy. The online marketplace may be best known for selling one-of-a-kind handmade crafts, but it's also filled with unique gifts for runners, including bags, jewelry, clothing, and more. We combed through thousands of listings and curated our favorites below.

Shoe Freshener Bags

It's a problem all runners have: sweaty, stinky shoes. These bags eat odor by pulling moisture out of shoes, and mask smells with tea tree and lavender oils. We like this "Danger" print—it makes for the perfect white elephant gift—but you can also have them printed with monkeys, pandas, pigs, and more.
